

Youth Happenings

JANUARY 2010

Thanks to all who helped with Giving Tree!! 28 families were helped this year. By sharing our time and gifts with those less fortunate, I believe our Christmas was more meaningful. To all my youth – always share of yourself with others and above all, be kind, be kind, be kind.

The high school Sunday School schedule for January is as follows:
Sunday, Jan. 3 – Breakfast meeting at Heidelberg: Sunday, Jan. 10 -Meet in Youth Room: Sunday, Jan. 17 – We will go to Golden Ridge and help resident Dorothy Wartluft celebrate her 98th birthday; Sunday, Jan. 24 – No class due to Youth Quake; Sunday, Jan. 31 – Assist in preparation of spaghetti dinner to be served after congregational meeting.

Just a reminder – All Youth Quake participants are to meet at the church on Friday, January 22 at 5:00 p.m. After a short meeting with parents, we will depart for Harrisburg. This year's YQ promises to be bigger and better than ever with great music, speakers, and many more kids than attended last year's Allentown Quake. Be prepared for a great weekend!

Anyone attending YQ must help with the spaghetti luncheon to be served after the congregational meeting on January 31. Plan to be here at church from Sunday School through 1:00 p.m. or until all dishes are washed!

On Tuesday, January 12, St. Daniel's youth and adult volunteers are again serving dinner for Family Promise. We will meet at Trinity at 5:15p.m. Please sign up if you are able to help. Confirmands earn a signature and high schoolers get community service hours.
